

2004-2017 Vito Pini Grantees

- 2017 St. Pius X School, $1,150
To support a one week trip for the 5th grade to the Pamet Learning Station, a former Coast Guard Station on the Cape Cod National Seashore. Through hands-on experience, first person observation, and guided exploration, students gain a deeper understanding of the unique and fragile place they call home.
- 2016 Cape Cod Academy, $1,150
To support construction of a Vernal Pool Living Classroom, in collaboration with Mass Audubon Long Pasture Wildlife Sanctuary.
- 2015 Latham Centers, $450
To support classroom learning tools for Latham Works' Pre-Vocational Skills Training Program.
- Trinity Christian Academy, $660
To support Lexia Learning Tablets.
- 2014 Latham Centers, $1,000
To support special needs educational apps for iPads in the classroom.
- 2013 Cape Cod Academy, $308
To support a field trip for 44 high school students to view the Dead Sea Scrolls exhibit at Boston's Museum of Science.
- 2012 Trinity Christian Academy, $1,000
For a Lexia Learning site license.
- 2011 Bridgeview Montessori School, $474
For the RICE program.
- 2010 Laurel School, $250
For all students to participate in the Math, Science, and Technology Expo at the school.
- Trinity Christian Academy, $800
Improving the integration of technology in the classroom through the purchase and use of an EIMO camera.
- Falmouth Academy, $378.88
To support "rhetoric" course equipment including marker boards.
- 2008 Falmouth Academy, $517
To support new science equipment in physics that will be used both by middle and high school students.
- Sturgis Charter School, $436
To support science equipment (1 Vernier LabQuest unit and probes).
- 2007 Cape Cod Academy, $400

To help fund a visiting performance of the Tanglewood Marionettes for 395 students in kindergarten through grade 12.

Falmouth Academy, $300

To help purchase equipment for the "Cupola Caper," a 12th grade science project that enables all 12th grade students to put academic physics learning into real life practice.

Laurel School, $300

To support the completion of Laurel School's second greenhouse.

Penikese Island School, $500

For teacher stipends used for preparation and professional development.

2006 Trinity Christian Academy, $550

To support transportation for field trips.

Penikese Island School, $400

To provide the opportunity for teachers to participate in peer review, curriculum planning and student progress reports to ensure smooth shift transition from one teacher to the next.

Cape Cod Academy, $420

To purchase wall maps and a globe for the Lower school's newly renovated science room.

2005 Falmouth Academy, $570

To purchase a DVD and CD set of "French in Action" for the Foreign Language Department for use in the 7th and 8th grade French classes.

Penikese Island School, $400

To provide the opportunity for teachers to participate in peer review, curriculum planning and student progress reports to ensure smooth shift transition from one teacher to the next.

2004 Cape Cod Lighthouse Charter School, $250

To establish and train a group of 8th grade writers from St. Francis Preparatory School to join the Write Connection program.