

2018 McGowan Fund Grantees

$45,000 was distributed to 11 organizations in 2018 through the Thomas C. McGowan Fund for Animals grantmaking program

Animal Rescue League of Boston, $5,000 to the Brewster shelter to support special/outside veterinary care

Cape Wildlife Center, $5,000 to support hospital and education initiatives

Center for Coastal Studies, $5,000 to support the Marine Animal Rescue Program

Mass Audubon Wellfleet Bay Sanctuary, $2,500 to support the Northern diamondback terrapin conservation program

Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (MSPCA), $5,000 for the Centerville shelter to help provide low-cost spay/neuter services to low-income cat and dog owners on Cape Cod

Nantucket Island Safe Harbor for Animals, $3,000 to support animal medical care

New England Society for Abandoned Animals, $2,500 to support spay/neuter services

People for Cats, $2,500 to support spay/neuter services

Sampson Fund for Veterinary Care, $7,000 to support rehabilitative treatment for critically ill or injured dogs and cats, particularly in life-threatening cases, when their owners cannot afford treatment

Second Chance Animal Rescue, $2,500 to support spay/neuter services on Martha's Vineyard

Wild Care, $5,000 to support the Critical Care Clinic and Wildlife Nursery